

Housing

Housing is one of the most important first steps for people returning to the community. In general, there are two different types of housing available: homeless shelters and halfway houses. This document lists both types for our communities.

Homeless Shelters

Sierra Vista

Good Neighbor Alliance

420 N. 7th St.

Sierra Vista, AZ 85635

Phone: 520-439-0776 or 520-439-9200

Provides emergency shelter for men/women/children, meals/showers/laundry, temporary housing for veterans.

Forgach House

Housing for victims of domestic violence.

No address available for privacy and safety.

Phone: 520-458-9096

Emergency shelter and food services.

Provides referrals, counseling, court assistance, legal support, and job training.

The maximum stay is 120 days.

Catholic Community Services

155 Bartow Dr., Ste A

Sierra Vista, AZ 85635

Phone: 520-458-4203

Provides temporary help.

Assists with housing issues, renters' rights, legal questions.

Provides information and help with financial planning.

Mary's Mission

345 Taylor Dr.

Sierra Vista, AZ 85635

Phone: 520-417-2115

Provides behavioral health, drug and alcohol counseling, rehabilitation services.

Bisbee

Bisbee Coalition for the Homeless

509 Romero St.

Bisbee, Arizona

Phone: 520-432-7839

Housing vouchers and emergency services

Housing Authority of Cochise County

1413 Melody Ln., Bldg a

Bisbee, AZ

Provides housing vouchers and veteran support

Douglas

House of Hope

2105 N. Washington Ave.

Douglas, AZ 85607

Phone: 580-364-2465

Emergency service and temporary housing

Halfway Houses

Sierra Vista

Hoops House

Various locations in Sierra Vista and Huachuca City.

Phone: 520-678-4120

Email: jhooper@hoopshouse.org

Bisbee

Renaissance House

240 O'Hara Street

Bisbee, Arizona

Phone 520-432-1771

Women's transitional house.